Woonsocket: Altar Society

Farwell to Fr. Jim at St. Joseph’s: Sunday, June 30th following 10:30am Mass in Wessington Springs. The Altar Society will be serving pork loin sandwiches, salads and cake for lunch with a program to follow. We will also be celebrating Fr. Paul’s birthday and Fr. Jim’s 30th anniversary of his ordination! There is a lot to celebrate, so be sure to join us!
Dear Parishioners and Friends,

A visit this past week put me more in touch with the pressures/struggles many have had this spring; pray God we draw the closer to each other and embrace the Lord all the more tightly. For me, struggles can purify me from self-trust, help me clarify what must be most important, and stretch my heart to greater compassion. Today, Pentecost Sunday, invites us to cry out, "Abba, Father!" (second reading, option B) and experience the Spirit as Advocate, teaching and reminding us of all Jesus told us (Gospel, option B). Come, O Holy Spirit…you of comforters the best (Sequence!)

On my way Sunday to my annual priest retreat at Abbey of the Hills (near Marvin), it works best to meet at Brookings with a couple for Marriage preparation; right after the retreat, Thursday, June 13, it works to have the Cemetery Mass at Brisbine on its namesake day, St. Anthony, and then make other stops around Artesian! On Friday I'll be most pleased to finally get back to 9:30am Mass at Wagner’s Good Sam. Center. To best plan and serve six locations through July 10th, I'm MOST APPRECIATIVE of emails, phone calls, etc. to inform and update me on needs, concerns, etc. Include for me notes telling me who is not able to get to Mass. After 3 times of someone not being able to get to Mass, it is CERTAINLY time to inform me so I can call and visit them! (It pains me deeply when there are Catholic whom I am not told about until a call comes from a hospital or funeral home.)

Many thanks to many adults from our parishes who brought children or offered help to bring about Totus Tuus at Wess. Springs! We look forward to this beginning Sunday night, June 16th, at Dante! Beloved, a Women's Conference, is this coming Sat. June 19th in Sioux Falls. My thanks to current or potentially interested ministers of Holy Communion, and current or new altar servers staying after one of the Masses this weekend or next weekend at Wagner or Dante for an update/refresher! I'm anxious to hear from any more potential Red Rope Servers at Woonsocket, Artesian or Wess. Springs.

Peace, Fr. Jim
